RECOGNIZE REPUBLIC, REQUEST

Secretary W. J. Bryan Proposes That Other Governments
Take Action

United States Government to Extend Fraternal Greetings to China

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Secretary Bryan has formally notified all diplomatic representatives here of the intention of the United States to recognize the new Chinese republic on April 8, the meeting day of the Assembly, and has formally proposed that all other governments recognize the new republic in concert on that day.

Secretary Bryan's note was delivered yesterday to some of the foreign diplomats and today to the remainder of the corps. Each was enjoined to secrecy that a formal announcement might be made from the White House first. President Wilson's statement is expected at any time.

Secretary Bryan's note was brief and in substance like this:

"The president requests me to notify you and your governments through you, of the intention of the United States to recognize the new Republic of China on April 8."

DESIRE CONCERT ACTION.

The remainder of the note is a brief suggestion that all other nations do likewise on that day.

Diplomats here regard the proposal for a concerted recognition as an action that will remove any ill-feeling that may have been created by what was called a breach of diplomacy recently when the White House announcement regarding the six-power loan was published here before the foreign governments' interests had been notified.

51 to 17.

SACRAMENTO, April 3.—Assemblyman T. D. Johnston's bill removing the property qualifications from jurors was passed by the lower house today by a vote of 51 to 17.

of Sword Thrusts; Seconds Intervene.

PARIS, April 3.—Both combatants were wounded in a sword duel fought today between Georges Berthoulet, managing director of La Liberté, and Pascal Cécaldi, a prominent member of the chamber of deputies. Their onslaught was very violent and resulted in Berthoulet receiving a thrust in the right breast and Cécaldi one in the right shoulder. The seconds then intervened and stopped the combat. The wounds are not expected to prove fatal.

Light Drizzle Falls In North of State

Precipitation in Bay Counties
Over Night Was
.05 Inch.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—A general drizzle, so light that it was measured only in second point decimals, began falling early this morning over Central and Northern California. And it was needed, for California at large has had this season an average of only 11 inches thus far, when it should be 20 inches.

The precipitation in the bay counties over night was .05 and in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys .01 inches. South of Toluchapi it was fair. Southerly winds veering to the west indicated that the showers would not last long.

There were snow flurries in the mountains. The fall there now stands at the same depth as last year, which was below the normal.

Tells How Laundry Driver Won Her Love

Attorney for Prof. Olsen Bares
Secrets That Led to Murder of Clyde Darling.

ST. PAUL, April 3.—That Clyde Darling "by his manners and devices won his way into the confidence of Mrs. Olson," that "prior to June, 1912, they had a mutual relationship with each other," and that "these relations continued until conscience or the will of God made her wish to stop them," were some of the declarations today in the opening speech of S. T. Donnelly, attorney for Professor Oscar Olson, accused of the murder of Clyde N. Darling, a laundry wagon driver.

Mrs. Olson was in the courtroom and wept while the attorney told of her life with the professor and of her alleged illegal relations with Darling.

In the telegraphic house accommodation is provided for all the 4050 passengers and 1200 crew.

Kill 50 People.

INCOME TAX COMMITTEE THEME

Democratic Majority of Ways and Means Committee Discusses Revenue

Free Sugar Is Also Important Feature of Tariff Considered by Legislators

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The Democratic majority of the House committee on ways and means are assembled today at what was expected to be the final meeting previous to the tariff revision bill being laid before the Democratic caucus next Tuesday.

With the points of difference between President Wilson and the committee settled by an agreement on free raw wool, chief interest shifted to free sugar and to the details of the income tax plan.

Members of the committee were prepared to receive a final word from the President regarding the tariff measure and to devote much of today to consideration of the income tax. There was a possibility of change in the provisional rate of 1 per cent on amounts above the exempted $4000 a year, running up to 4 per cent on $100,000 or more a year.

TO MEET EMERGENCIES.

In connection with the framing of the new permanent feature of the government revenue system a consideration of the question of flexibility of the rates so as to meet emergencies in government needs has evoked an interest as to the constitutionality of the provision that would permit the President, by permission or otherwise, to change any income tax rate.

The income tax plan will absorb much of the administrative details of the present corporation tax law. The law will be based on the incomes for a single year's operations instead of an average of a number of years. The entire tax, it was estimated, would not exceed 1 per cent of the aggregate revenue from that source.

TO COLLECT AT SOURCE.

It is figured that at least two-thirds of the tax revenue can be collected under the principle of collection at the source. The purpose of this method is to minimize the inequities and lessen the basis of individual complaint. This is largely based upon the workings of the law in Great Britain, which country, according to the information laid before the committee, has collected $200,000,000 from an income tax. As to all incomes by which the tax is so measured and paid the individual taxpayer would not be required to make a personal return. The government, corporations, co-partnerships and persons paying annual earnings to employees or other persons in excess of the minimum taxable income, now provisionally $4000, would deduct and withhold this tax and turn it over to the government, a method that would likewise apply to mortgages and leases of real or personal property. The taxpayer, under the proposed system, would not in the bulk of cases come in contact with a revenue official.

Claims She Was Shot by Husband

Mrs. Daisy Anderson Receives
Bullet Wound in Back.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Mrs. Daisy Anderson, 24 years old and the wife of Milton Anderson, was shot, as she claims, by her husband in her apartment at 560 1/2 Third street at 9 o'clock this morning. The wound is not serious and the woman is resting easily at the Central Emergency hospital.

Anderson and his wife have been separated for some time. This morning Mrs. Anderson told the police she had just arisen when her spouse entered and aimed a revolver at her. She replied in kind to his salutes and in the heat of the war of words Anderson drew a revolver and shot her in the back.

The bullet inflicted a deep flesh wound. Following the shooting Anderson ran from the hotel and the police are looking for him. Anderson was formerly employed at the Hotel Sutter.

GERMAN AIR WAR VESSEL SEIZED BY FRANCE

SHIP, LOST IN CLOUDS, CROSSES THE FRONTIER

DROPS DOWN ON MILITARY FIELD

Enraged Populace Kept at Distance by Battalion of Infantry

LUNEVILLE, France, April 3.—One of the great German Zeppelin airships landed today on French territory, coming down on the military parade ground here at midday while a brigade of French riflemen were drilling. It was seized by the French authorities.

Six German officers alighted from the gondola and explained to Brigadier-General Adolphe Leon Lescol, who galloped up, that the motor of the airship had developed a defect.

LOST IN CLOUDS.

A ranking German officer said they had departed from Friedrichshafen on Lake Constance, at 8:40 o'clock this morning and lost their way in the clouds. They did not know they had crossed the French frontier.

Such crowds collected during the interrogation and the excitement grew so intense that the commandant found it necessary to call out a battalion of infantry to keep the indignant populace at a distance.

The news of the descent of the German military dirigible was telegraphed to the ministry of war at Paris, where it was ordered that the chief aeronautic officer at Luneville to represent him at the inquiry which was instituted at once.

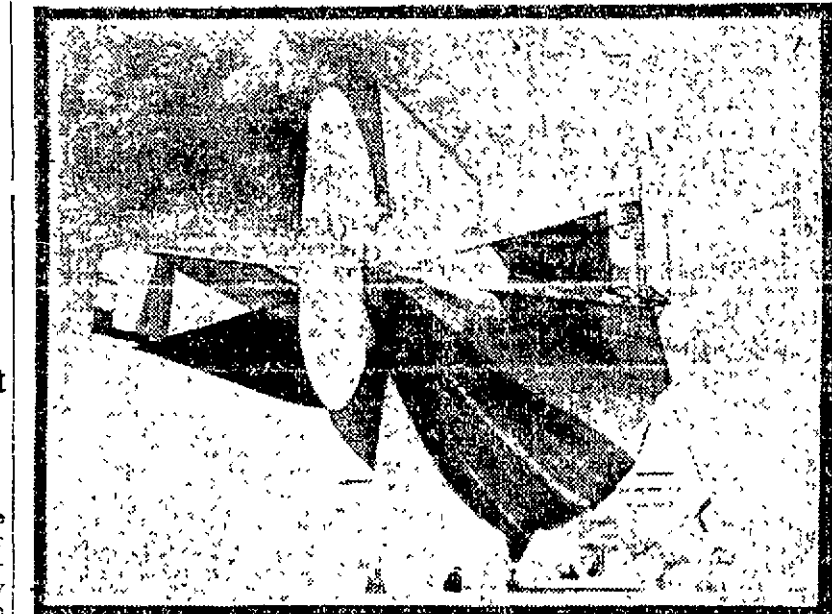

Grand Jury Probes Case Against Baker

Alleged Shortage of Former Crocker Bank Cashier
Being Investigated.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The federal grand jury assembled at 2 o'clock this afternoon to investigate the shortages of Charles F. Baker, of Oakland, former assistant cashier of the Crocker National Bank, accused of the theft of more than $100,000. The principal witnesses in attendance were National Bank Examiner W. N. Morris of Oakland and Ferris Baldwin, a teller in the Crocker National Bank. Morris testified as to the shortages found by him in the inspection of the books while Baldwin's evidence was confined to the fact of the disappearance of certain securities, after his discovery of the alleged theft.

The accused banker was not present, nor was he given an opportunity to tell his story.

Slaying of Suspect By Policeman Probed

Man Killed in Duel Carried Sailor's Kit Instead of Loot.

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—An inquiry was started by Chief of Police Sebastian today into the killing of an unidentified man by Patrolman A. W. Benjamin late last night. According to Benjamin the victim was suspected of burglary. When Benjamin approached him he opened fire on the officer and a running pistol duel ensued. After a chase of four blocks, during which there was a rapid exchange of shots, the fleeing man fell with a bullet in his head. A bundle carried by the man, which Patrolman Benjamin believed contained loot, proved to be a sailor's kit.

Mistaken for Burglar In Apartments; Killed

Commercial Traveler Shot After Entering Wrong
Hallway.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Mistaken for a burglar, Charles Pennington, a commercial traveler whose home is believed to have been in Cleveland, was shot and killed today by Harry Farrell, a machinist, in the hallway of an apartment house at 2343 Calumet avenue.

Pennington had been stopping with a family named Alfred on the second floor. Farrell lives on the third floor. Awakened by a noise in the hall Farrell went to the door and saw Pennington. When the latter attempted to cross through the doorway into the flat, Farrell fired. It is believed Pennington ascended the third floor unintentionally.

HARDSHIPS ALLOTTED WOMAN

Suffragette Convicted for Inciting Persons to Commit Damage

Feminine Warriors Are Now
Accused of Trying to Burn Church

LONDON, April 3.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the leader of the militant suffragettes, was found guilty at the Old Bailey sessions today and sentenced to three years' penal servitude on the charge of inciting persons to commit damage.

The trial lasted two days. The jury added to its verdict of guilt a strong recommendation for mercy, and when the judge pronounced the heavy sentence of three years the crowd of women in the courtroom rose in angry protest.

CROWD CHEERS HER.

As Mrs. Pankhurst stood up in the prisoners' enclosure, her sympathizers cheered wildly, and then filed out of court singing "March, On, March On" to the tune of "Marseillaise." Mrs. Pankhurst's closing address to the jury lasted fifty minutes. She informed the court that she did not wish to conceal any of her measures. In her address she frequently wandered so far from the matter before the court that the judge censured her.

Mrs. Pankhurst denied any malicious incitement. "Neither for the other militant suffragettes are wicked or malicious," she said. "Women are not tried by their peers, and these trials are an example of what women are suffering in order to obtain their rights."

WOULD SURRENDER INCOME.

"Personally I have offered to surrender a large part of my income in order to be free to participate in the suffrage movement."

Speaking with much feeling Mrs. Pankhurst fiercely criticized men-made laws and said the divorce law alone was sufficient to justify a revolution by the women of this country.

In impassioned tones she declared: "Whatever may be my sentence, I will not submit. From the very moment I leave the court, I will refuse to eat. I will come out of prison dead or alive at the earliest possible moment."

Justice Lush, in summing up told the jury that Mrs. Pankhurst's speeches were an admission that she had incited to the perpetration of illegal acts.

ALMOST BREAKS DOWN.

Mrs. Pankhurst almost broke down when the jury pronounced its verdict. Leaning over the front of the prisoners' enclosure she said: "It is impossible to find a different verdict I want to say to you and the jury, that it is your duty as private citizens to do what you can to put an end to this state of affairs." She then repeated her determination to end her sentence as soon as possible, saying:

"I don't want to commit suicide. Life is very dear to all of us, but I want to see the women of this country enfranchised. I want to live until that has been done. I will take the desperate remedy other women have taken and I will keep it up as long as I have an ounce of strength."

ADmits BREAKING LAW.

"I deliberately broke the law, not hysterically and not emotionally, but for a set and serious purpose. I honestly believe this is the only way."

"This movement will go on whether I live or die. I am sure you will go on until women have obtained the common rights of citizenship throughout the civilized world."

Justice Lush said:

"I must pass a severe sentence on you, if you would only realize the wrong you are doing and use your influence in the right direction. I am sure you will use your own endeavors to secure a mitigation of your sentence. I cannot and I will not."

not regard your crime as trivial. It is a most serious one."

A letter from Mrs. Emerson of Detroit, Mich., was handed by Joseph Wadsworth, a Liberal member of parliament, to Reginald McKenna, the British home secretary, today. It demands permission for Mrs. Emerson's own physician to examine her daughter, Miss Zelle Emerson, the militant suffragette, who is said to be suffering from the forcible feeding employed by the officials, since she started her "hunger strike" in Holloway jail.

The United States embassy, according to Mrs. Emerson, has promised in the event of failure of Secretary McKenna to comply with her request to place the matter before the British foreign office.

A letter from a prisoner confined in the next cell to Miss Emerson states that the release of the American woman within a few days is necessary in order to save her reason and perhaps her life. This letter also asserts that Miss Emerson, by giving her neighbor a portion of her food, started her "hunger strike" 14 days before the prison doctors discovered the ruse.

PUBLICITY IS KEYNOTE

In discussing a bill to circumvent "hunger strikes" by suffragettes, Reginald McKenna, the British home secretary, urged the House of Commons yesterday not to attach too much importance to the "terrible tales of suffering caused by forcible feeding."

"Publicity," he said, "is the keynote of the militant suffragette propaganda. Alternately the suffragettes shock the public by the violence of their outrages and attempt to enlist sympathy by publishing tales of their sufferings in prison."

TRY TO BURN CHURCH

Although there is no direct evidence against them, the suffragettes generally are credited with the attempt made to burn St. Jude's Free Church at Hampstead Heath last night. As the organist was entering the church he found a cupboard ablaze. The fire quickly was extinguished.

American and Anglo-American women continue to invade the American embassy to urge action for the release of Miss Zelle Emerson from Holloway jail. They invariably accept the explanation that the embassy has no power to interfere as long as Miss Emerson is treated as English prisoners are. Mrs. Emerson is seeking a personal interview with Home Secretary Reginald McKenna.

The National League, which opposes the woman suffrage, has had considerable success in its campaign for funds. The league already has received upward of $100,000, of which $15,000 has been subscribed by the Rothschilds. Several subscriptions of $5,000 have been received, including one from W. W. Astor.

Militant suffragettes attempted to burn houses in the Hampstead district of London. One of the residences suffragettes tried to blow up last week. The damage done was not extensive.

WELCOME CHURCHILL

PLYMOUTH, Eng., April 3.—Militant suffragettes made active preparations this morning to welcome Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty who later arrived here on board the Admiralty yacht. The women painted their greeting in big letters on Smeaton lighthouse and at other points of vantage facing the sea.

COMMITTEE CAMPAIGNERS FOR COUNTY EXHIBITS

Circular Letter Calls Upon Local Manufacturers to Show Their Wares

The manufacturers' committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, is waging a spirited campaign to secure exhibitors for the exhibition of the made-in-Alameda-county products which will be held April 19 to 30, inclusive, in the basement of the new Kahn building, Broadway above Fourteenth street. Every manufacturer in Alameda county has received a letter from the committee telling of the plans of the project, the work already done, etc., in forcibly bringing to the attention of the 300,000 people in the county the products made here.

The committee has already over 60 reservations and is desirous of securing 100 or more exhibitors in order that a fair appropriation for advertising in connection with the exhibit may be made. Each manufacturer is invited to exhibit his wares and do all that he can to secure business for himself by making a display of his products during the ten-day exhibit.

MARKS NEW ERA

"The exhibit of made-in-Alameda-county products bids fair to mark a new era for the manufacturers on this side of the bay," says the committee in its letter.

"Our local manufacturers are rapidly coming into their own and are beginning to understand that enterprise, on their part, produces a quick reward."

"Every manufacturer in Alameda and Contra Costa counties should be represented in the coming exhibit. It's an opportunity never before presented. It means an introduction to the 300,000 residents of Alameda county."

MANUFACTURERS' COMMITTEE

The manufacturers' committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce has been in existence nearly eighteen months. It has, though still in the development stage, accomplished a great deal. Its object is the development and protection of the manufacturing industries of Alameda county.

On the committee are M. L. Hadley, chairman; O. S. Orrick Jr., secretary; Frank A. Leach Jr., E. H. Marwedel, R. A. Fenton, Arney K. Sturgis and Harold Oliver.

The officers of the committee are: Chairman, Andrew H. Irving; past chairman, George E. Randolph; vice chairman, M. L. Hadley; secretary, Frederick Boegle Jr.

The executive committee includes John W. Phillips (chairman), Frank W. Bilger, John G. Buswell, E. H. Marwedel and Curtis Wright Jr.

STORE WORKERS SIT AT BANQUET

The Roos-Heeseman "Get Together" Clubs Hold a Lively Session.

TA one of the most handsomely decorated boards ever seen at the Hotel Oakland, three "get-together" clubs of Oakland, Berkeley and San Francisco's stores, Roos Brothers and Heeseman's, Inc., sat down last night to one of the informal dinners for which the clubs are noted. The tables were laid for forty guests, men and women, buyers of the big stores, and executive heads of departments. Roos Brothers, San Francisco, Heeseman's, Inc., Oakland, and also of the Berkeley store, were in attendance.

The color scheme was red, being carried out in flowers and decorations. The speakers included several of the buyers of the three firms, who told of the coming season, novelties on the eastern market, and of the fashion for next year, and what the stores will do to spread them. Frank Houts, manager of the Oakland store, acted as toastmaster.

Manager Bergault of the San Francisco store, and Buyer Isaacs, who soon leaves for Europe to purchase leather goods for the three stores, as well as buyers Camp and Cassner who, store in Eastern markets, the latest fashions in men's clothing, were the speakers, dealing with big stores and telling of the probable outlook for the coming season, which they predicted will be a particularly active one. The affair began promptly at 7 o'clock and was shortly before midnight when the speakers mentioned, as well as several others, called on for short addresses along business lines, finished. An active business campaign was outlined, and many improvements in service to the public planned.

SENTENCED TO 3 YEARS IN PRISON

Judgment of Court Follows the Revoking of H. Du Chene's Probation.

Herman Du Chene was sentenced to serve three years in San Quentin prison this morning by Superior Judge Waste who revoked his probation on the grounds that the defendant had violated the terms on which he was released from custody in the local courts several months ago.

Present in the courtroom at the time sentenced was imposed was Mrs. Gertrude Du Chene of San Francisco, mother of the youth. She broke down and sobbed. On the witness stand the mother told of having made every effort to assist her son after his release on probation. She said that she had placed him in a night school in San Francisco, bought him clothes and helped him in every way.

By selling a set of drawing instruments his mother had given him for use in school. Du Chene went to Los Angeles. In the southern city he again got into trouble and was arrested. While the authorities there were debating whether or not to place him on probation at his request, the local authorities learned of his whereabouts and a bench warrant issued for his arrest was served. Du Chene was then brought here, charged with violating his probation.

About a year ago, in company with two brothers, Du Chene left Buffalo, N. Y., beating their way across the country to Los Angeles in search of their mother. Herman found his way to Oakland and was arrested for stealing a suit of clothes from a local rooming house. After his arrest his mother located by THE TRIBUNE and informed of her son's predicament with the result that she obtained his release on a promise to care for him.

The mother testified at the time that her son had been a victim of circumstances since his boyhood, having been placed in a orphanage when his father died at an early age for a trivial offense.

PETITION TO MOVE THE HIGH SCHOOL

Many Big Property Owners Want Institution Changed to Residence Section.

A petition has been presented to the Board of Education, asking for the removal of the Oakland High School from its present location to a more suitable location in the residence portion of the city. The petition is signed by numerous business men, some of whom are owners of large holdings in downtown property. In addition to these were presented resolutions from the Federated Mothers Club, the Oakland Center of the California Civic League, the Child's Welfare League and the Central District Property Owners Club.

A communication from the Downtown Improvement Club on the same subject has also been forwarded to the Board of Education.

The argument is put forth that the school property will sell for not less than $300,000.

Among the prominent signers of the petition are Charles J. Heeseman, H. C. Denison, J. E. Penney, R. M. Fitzgerald, J. E. Carleton, W. H. Leimert, M. L. and William J. Layman, F. M. Smith, of the Realty Exchange, J. Snyder, Abrahamson Bros., Wickham Havens, John F. Conners.

SCHOOLS REQUIRED TO DISPLAY STATE FLAG

SACRAMENTO, April 3.—Every school building in the state is required to display the historic California bear flag on all holidays in a bill by Senator Hans of Alameda county, passed by the upper house this morning.

The private interests of legislators and their duties to the state were the subject of a debate in the senate in connection with the Wright constitutional amendment prohibiting the holding of two offices under the state or any subdivision thereof at the same time. No action was taken on the measure.

EXTENSION ON TOURIST TICKETS TO BE MADE

Extension in time on tourist tickets to give visitors ample opportunity to inspect Oakland, will probably be given as a result of conference between Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce and Charles E. Fox, traffic manager of the Southern Pacific, who has the matter under consideration.

"We particularly want you and your associates," said Fox, "to know that whenever opportunity offers we will be glad to let you and your friends a fair share of representation insofar as we can—just bring it about."

DEFINES POSITION ON DIVIDED DUTIES

Chamber of Commerce Willing to Relinquish Work of Entertaining.

Clearly defining its position in regard to the proposed division of activities of the Chamber of Commerce and Commercial Club, suggested at the last meeting of that body, the Chamber of Commerce has set forth its aims and objects, and proposes that the Commercial Club extend hospitality to visitors, the chamber to handle all of its regular work as before.

The extending of hospitality to guests was heretofore handled by the chamber, which, however, was not equipped for the work, and which made no pretense of doing it, as the club will. The club functions are welcomed by the chamber as a good institution, and all aid will be given the organization in making these features and the entertainment of guests successful.

"We welcome the plan of having the Commercial Club attend to the social side of our commercial work," said Secretary Denison. "We are not equipped to handle this well, being a purely business organization. Our aim is to achieve publicity for the county, and especially Oakland, and further commercial advantages."

TEAM TO DRILL

RICHMOND, April 3.—The drill team of the local lodge of Yeomen departed for San Jose last evening. They were headed by Drillmaster F. G. Conn and will take the leading part in the initiation of a class of 200 candidates into that order in San Jose this evening.

PRIOR OFFENSES ADD TO SENTENCE

Thomas Fitzgerald, Who Robbed Home, Gets 12 Years in Folsom.

With several prior offenses against his record, Thomas Fitzgerald, who robbed the home of Charles Ingler several weeks ago, was sentenced to serve twelve years in Folsom prison by Superior Judge Donahue this morning. Fitzgerald is considered a clever criminal by the authorities in spite of the fact that he has barely reached his majority. Several years ago he was sentenced to the reform school at Lone, while other charges of burglary against him were either dismissed or the defendant placed upon probation.

Harry Michaelson, an alleged partner of young Fitzgerald, is now in the city prison at San Francisco awaiting trial for a similar offense. Michaelson was brought to Oakland to testify against Fitzgerald and when he became angry at the manner in which Fitzgerald's attorney questioned him on the stand he gave incriminating evidence against his former partner.

WIFE OBJECTED TO TENDING BAR

Charges That Husband Compelled Her to Serve Drinks.

Abce Dugan did not find that tending bar in her husband's saloon was any easier than waiting on customers in her own grocery store, according to testimony upon which she was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce today by Superior Judge Waste.

Dugan was averse to remaining in the saloon all of the time and when closing hours came his wife had difficulty in getting the patrons to leave, she said. Her husband also treated her in a cruel manner, accusing her of misappropriating the funds, even charging that she broke open the safe one night and laid it against burglars, she charged.

Alleging that her husband indulges in liquor to access and that he treats her cruelly, Gertrude Prusso has filed suit against Louis W. Prusso.

MRS. GOODFELLOW'S PARENTS VISIT DAUGHTER

L. L. Cory, prominent Fresno attorney, and Mrs. Cory, are registered at the new Hotel Oakland, being in this city for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Cory are the parents of Mrs. Arthur Goodfellow, well known in local society, who before her marriage was Mrs. Dithorne Cory. They will probably remain in Oakland for several days.

Oakland Assemblyman Resents Attack on Insurance Committee

(Special Correspondence of THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, April 3. — Resenting an aspersion cast upon his integrity as a legislator and replying for other members of the Assembly committee on insurance as well, Assemblyman Frank M. Smith of Oakland took the floor yesterday afternoon and denounced the remarks of Assemblyman George B. Finnegan of Nevada City as the utterings of a political fanatic and an "unfortunate" "first-term" whose efforts to play to the gallery had led him "to become feeble-minded."

The clash came during the debate over Assembly bill No. 32, which provides for the introduction of the time within which notice of loss through accident or casualty must be served upon insurance companies. At the present time there is no state law governing this point, but the insurance companies have been pursuing an arbitrary rule of demanding notice within ten days.

The bill was fixed the time at thirty days, but when it came up for consideration before the Assembly committee on insurance the time was fixed at twenty days. The insurance companies fought the fixing of any time.

REPORTED "DO PASS."

The bill was reported "do pass" by the committee on a twenty-day basis, but when it came up for final reading on the floor of the Assembly, Assemblyman Nelson sought to have it amended to thirty days.

It was following Nelson's argument that Finnegan interposed.

"I am here in the interests of the poor man, the man who toils, and I want to pass laws to help that man. I do not see why the members of the insurance committee of this house should play into the hands of the insurance companies. I would make the time limit on this bill not less than a year."

Smith jumped to his feet and was recognized. The instant Finnegan took his seat, he said:

"I came to this legislature two years ago as a progressive and I stand before the people on the record I have made. I resent these 'playing to the gallery' tactics, which are done for no other reason than to store up ammunition for future political campaigns at the expense of besmirching the reputation and stinging the integrity of other members of this Assembly."

"We have been accused from some quarters of introducing too much freak legislation here. You have been given a fair illustration of freak legislation by the assemblyman from Nevada, for which we are being criticized. His legislation is not alone freak legislation. It is fanaticism personified."

"I will continue to go on the basis that everyone is entitled to a fair trial, and whether it be insurance company or working man."

WOULD ABOLISH CORONER.

An innovation in county government is proposed by the Tax Association of Alameda county, calling for the abolishment of the office of county coroner and making that position an appointive one under the district attorney. The plan is set forth in a report sent out by the association to members of the Alameda county legislative delegation at the capitol and other members of the legislature.

The sentiment of the members of the Legislature was expressed yesterday when they adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That the Legislature and the people of the state of California be and they are hereby commended to the people of the state of California for the entertainment and reception accorded by both cities upon the occasion of the visit of the members of the legislature to the bay last Saturday and Sunday."

"Whereas, Upon this occasion the said legislators were afforded an opportunity to view the splendid work they have accomplished about the magnificent waterfront both of San Francisco and Oakland and to examine the site of the great Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and

"Whereas, The said legislators are especially indebted to the Harbor Commissioners of San Francisco and the directors of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition company for the day spent in San Francisco, and to the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Oakland for the courtesy extended in that city.

"Resolved, That the Legislature and its individual members hereby extend their hearty thanks to the citizens of San Francisco and Oakland, and especially to the Harbor Commissioners, the board of directors of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition company for the day spent in San Francisco, and to the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Oakland for the courtesy extended in that city."

PROHIBIT DESECRATION.

Anarchistic organizations which adopt emblems of their own under which to rally and march and advertisers who attempt to make dollars out of the red, white and blue by using the combination of colors for advertising purposes will be hit hard by the measure introduced by Assemblyman Frank M. Smith on behalf of the G. A. R., which prohibits the desecration of the stars and stripes. The measure was recommended for passage by the assembly judiciary committee late yesterday afternoon.

There are several stringent regulations in the bill and there is likelihood that it will meet with amendments on the floor of the assembly.

It shall be unlawful for any person publicly to mutilate, deface, defile, defile or stand upon or by word or act to cast contempt upon any flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States of America.

It shall also be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to carry in a parade, or cause to be displayed as an emblem, any other flag than the flag of the United States, or a flag recognized by the United States government, or the state flag, or to carry or display the United States flag reversed or union down; provided, that this section shall not apply to a parade of people of a foreign nation holding friendly relations with the United States, who may carry the national flag of such nation, but such flag shall be carried only when 10 feet in rear of the United States flag.

The provisions of the act shall not apply to any act expressly authorized or permitted by any statute of the United States or by the United States army or navy regulations, and shall not apply to any newspaper, periodical, pamphlet or circular or to any certificate or diploma.

VALIDATE PLAN TO GIVE MILLION FOR FAIR

Judiciary Committee Reports
Favorably on Tyrrell's Amendment.

Counties May Issue Bonds to Raise Money as Gift, if Bill Passes.

(Special Correspondence of THE TRIBUNE.)

SACRAMENTO, April 3. — The first action toward according to Alameda county the privilege of issuing $1,000,000 bonds for the purpose of aiding in the success of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco in 1915 was taken late yesterday afternoon when the Senate judiciary committee reported out favorably Senator Tyrrell's constitutional amendment No. 34, making it possible for counties to issue bonds to raise money as a gift.

In order for Alameda county to give its financial support to the fair through the acquisition of stock or other collateral, it was necessary to have the constitution amended to make this possible.

SECTION PROVIDES WAY.

The particular section, inserted to effect Alameda county, provides that:

"Any indebtedness incurred contrary to any provision of this section shall be void; and provided, further, that the county of Alameda by its legislative authority may incur a bonded indebtedness not to exceed $1,000,000 and to issue bonds therefor, and to grant and turn over to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company the proceeds of the bonds for stock in the company or under such other terms and conditions as the legislative authority may determine, the same to be used and disbursed by the company for the purpose of an exposition to be held in the city and county of San Francisco to celebrate the completion of the Panama canal."

INTEREST IS 5 PER CENT.

"The bonds so issued to be of such form and to be redeemable registered and converted in such manner and amounts and at such times not later than forty years from the date of their issue as the legislative authority of Alameda county shall determine. The interest on these bonds is not to exceed five per centum per annum and the bonds to be exempt from all taxes for State, county and municipal purposes and to be sold for not less than par at such times and places and in such manner as shall be determined by the legislative authority."

PAYABLE IMMEDIATELY.

"The proceeds of these bonds when sold is to be payable immediately upon such terms or conditions as the legislative body may determine to the treasurer of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Company, upon demands of the treasurer of the company, without the necessity of the approval of such demands by other authority than the legislative authority of Alameda county. The proceeds are to be used and disbursed by the exposition company for the purposes and control of the exposition company."

The legislative authority of the county of Alameda is empowered and directed to levy a special tax on all taxable property in the county each year after the issue of the bonds to raise an amount to pay the interest on the bonds as they come due and to create a sinking fund to pay the principal when it shall become due.

men in the state who believe in and are actively engaged in lodge work.

This bill provides, among other things, that mutual or benefit associations, composed of members of secret societies exclusively, shall not be required to have a lodge system or representative form of government. The 1911 legislature passed a law for the regulation of fraternal societies, which specifically provides for the maintenance of the lodge system and responsible supreme legislative body.

Following the law comes Senator Keene's bill No. 82, which seems to act as an entering wedge to break down and destroy the lodge system, which is considered the very backbone and bulwark of all fraternal societies. Should this bill pass every fraternal society of a secret nature, which also issues invitations to its members would cease to be a lodge and become an insurance company. This is evident by the terms of the bill which says:

"Mutual or benefit associations organized or formed and composed of members of secret or fraternal societies, lodges or councils exclusively, shall be subject to and shall be governed by all the laws of this state providing for the regulation and control of fraternal benefit societies, and provided that no such association shall be required to have a lodge system or representative form of government."

"Mutual or benefit associations organized or formed and composed of members of secret or fraternal societies, lodges or councils exclusively, which are now engaged in transacting business in this State may exercise after the passage of this act all of the rights conferred thereby upon secret or fraternal societies, and all the rights, powers and privileges now exercised or possessed by it under its charter or articles of incorporation, not inconsistent with this act or not inconsistent with the laws of this state, providing for the regulation and control of fraternal benefit societies."

"And such society may continue such business until the first day of July next succeeding the passage of this act, at which time such association must obtain a certificate of authority to continue to transact such business in this State. Before such certificate is issued there must be filed with the insurance commissioner a duly certified copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, a copy of its constitution and laws certified by its necessary or corresponding officer, a power of attorney to the insurance commissioner as provided in the act entitled, 'An act for the regulation and control of fraternal benefit societies.'"

Assemblyman Smith is a member of the insurance committee of the Assembly. He says that he does not believe the committee will stand for legislation of this character and is prepared to make a strenuous fight if the bill reaches the House.

REED DENIES "SCRAP" WITH THE GOVERNOR

BERKELEY, April 3.—In a meeting supporting Charles D. Heywood for mayor, Professor Thomas H. Reed of the University of California denied at the high school last evening the statement of James H. Todd the previous evening that Reed had lost his position as Governor Johnson's secretary because he had "got to scrapping" with the governor.

"It was a plain, simple lie," said Reed, Charles D. Heywood was another speaker at the meeting. Reed attacked Herbert F. Briggs and Charles H. Spear, Heywood's opponents for the mayoralty.

FIGHT ON VACCINATION.

It anti-compulsory vaccination is to have any place on the statute books of California, it will have to fight its way through the door of the legislature. The Assembly committee on public health and quarantine, George Fitzgerald, Oakland, chairman, yesterday afternoon, recommended out of committee Assemblyman George Gelder's measure, Assembly Bill No. 357, with a "do not pass" report.

This is the bill on which the assemblymen have been waging a strong fight and on which stirring committee meetings and public hearings have been held. The unfavorable report on the bill follows the filing of a petition signed by 23,000 voters declaring against compulsory vaccination.

The State board of health, through its secretary, Dr. W. F. Snodgrass, has fought the measure, branding it as a menace to life should it be enacted.

Assemblyman Gelder charges that the "medical trust" is behind the move to defeat his bill and that he will make a strenuous fight on the floor of the assembly to secure its passage over the committee recommendation.

The bill at issue is intended to protect any child or person enrolled or employed in any public or private school of the state from indiscriminate vaccination and to prevent vaccination being made a precedent or a prerequisite to attendance at any school in the state.

LODGES ARE AROUSED.

Fraternal societies throughout California have become aroused over the measure introduced by Senator Keene of Humboldt, which it is declared will practically wipe out all of the fraternal and lodge features from organizations carrying insurance members and place them strictly on an insurance basis.

Thomas M. Robinson of Oakland, manager of the Pacific jurisdiction of the Woodmen of the World, through Oakland Camp No. 94, which is one of the largest fraternal aggregations in the State, has taken steps to defeat the measure and has enlisted Assemblyman Frank Smith in the fight. Assemblyman Smith says he will fight the measure to the last ditch.

TWENTY CANDIDATES ARE OUT FOR OFFICES IMPORTANT OFFICIALS SOON TO BE ELECTED

CANDIDATES FOR THE OFFICES OF AUDITOR AND CITY COMMISSIONERS OF OAKLAND.

With the municipal nominating election less than two weeks away, the Oakland political field has not developed anything in the way of a close fight among the candidates. The nominating election will be held Tuesday, April 15, at which time 20 candidates will present themselves to the voters for nomination for six municipal positions. The two highest in each case will qualify to contest for election at the general municipal election, to be held May 6.

The positions to be filled are those of city auditor and ex-officio assessor, city commissioner and three school district commissioners. All are to be elected for a term of four years.

The incumbents in the offices to be filled are all seeking re-election and present themselves on the splendid record they have made.

ADMINISTRATOR CANDIDATE. George E. Reed, for the past six years city auditor and ex-officio assessor, is the administrative candidate for the office he now holds. Reed comes before the people with an exceptional record for fair dealing and efficiency. Elected at the time the office of assessor was merged with that of auditor, Reed has been a man of family, his home being at 149 Grand avenue.

SERB SOCIALIST CANDIDATE. William F. Serb, socialist candidate for auditor, was born in Jefferson county, Kentucky, 16 years ago. He was an infant in arms when his parents migrated to California. After attending the San Francisco public schools, Serb entered the employ of the city of San Francisco as a clerk, and later as a bookkeeper. He is now in the employ of the city of Oakland as a clerk, and is a member of the Socialist party.

ANDERSON CANDIDATE. Harry S. Anderson now holds the position of city commissioner. He is a candidate to succeed himself. Anderson was elected two years ago after a hard fight, entering upon his duties with a high official in the city. He has been engaged in the carpet business with his father, S. Anderson, and his reputation for perseverance and fair dealing in the business world followed him in his new work. Under his direction the larger portion of the municipal waterfront improvements have been constructed, and the new City Hall has been brought to practical completion. The matter of reorganizing the new schools under the recent bond issue has been handled with speed and without any breath of criticism falling upon the men involved.

ANDERSON IS A CANDIDATE. Anderson is a member of the Masons, Elks, Moose and other fraternal organizations. He is a high official in the National Union Fraternal Insurance organization. He is a director in the Oakland Base Ball Club. Anderson is a man of family, his home being at 1122 Second avenue.

TOBEY OPPOSES ANDERSON. C. Alward Tobey is the Socialist candidate for Commissioner No. 1. He is a candidate to succeed himself. Tobey is a sign painter and has been a member of the city council for many years. He is a member of the local sign painters' union and of the Fraternal Brotherhood. Tobey is making his campaign on the principles of Socialism as applied to municipal government, and is also making a campaign in opposition to proposed creation of a new ward in the city.

TELEPHONE RATES WILL REMAIN SAME

Council Sets Old Figure for the Coming Twelve Months.

Company Officials Promise a Better Service for Near Future.

Telephone rates at present in force were continued for another twelve months by the action of the city council this morning in giving first reading to an ordinance re-enacting the ordinance for the past fiscal year with the same rates. An agreement was entered into by which 200 free telephones will be provided for the new city hall, and the police and fire telephone system and departments.

The telephone company was represented at the hearing this morning by John W. Gilkison, district superintendent, and Harry Brownlee, district superintendent for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. It was explained that the rates provided a return of two per cent gross on the investment and figures were offered to substantiate this. The commissioners were unable to find any flaw in the statistics and declared that they would not be justified in making any change that would cause a reduction in the returns of the company that could be justified in a court of law.

GIVEN FIRST READING. The rate ordinance was given its first reading and it is possible that some minor changes may be made. This change may be in the number of telephones allowed the municipalities free by the telephone company. The rates enacted were as follows:

For business telephone, unlimited switches, $7.00 per month.
For business telephone, 125 calls, $5.00.
For business telephone, 80 calls, $4.00.

Residence phone, one party, $3.00.
Residence phone, two party, $2.25.
Rates as above for wall telephone, 25 cents extra for portable desk phone.

Mayor Frank K. Mott pointed out that the business rate was greater than that in effect in Los Angeles, but explained that this was offset by the fact that a toll system between municipalities was in effect in Los Angeles. The residence phone rates were approximately the same in both municipalities.

OUTSIDE SWITCHING.

Gilkison pointed out that it would be unfair to set rates in Oakland without taking into consideration the fact that the plant values in adjoining cities increased the value of the service and the cost of service. In answer to the statement by the mayor that there had been complaints about the service, Gilkison explained that the company had been under the difficulty of installing new switchboards on live lines, and that the service had to be continuous while the men were at work. He stated that the operators were working under a strain during the time the carpenters and other workmen were hammering and working in the building, but that this condition would be obviated in a short time.

Engineer Miller of the eastbound train is alleged to have failed to obey his orders to take the siding at Walsley to allow the westbound train to pass; and the latter crashed into his train.

The wrecking car on this eastbound train was telescoped completely, and it was here that practically all of the dead and injured were found. Both trains were badly wrecked.

HARSH CRITICISM STOPPED BY SHOT

Aspersions Cast Upon Singing Said to Have Moved John Bardona to Shoot.

Organization to Be Represented at the Fresno Convention.

Representing criticism of his voice, which he had considered a tender that would rival Caruso or Bonini, John Bardona, 488 Forty-ninth street, is alleged last night to have taken a shot at George Andriani, the musical director of the club, who took effect in the high heel of Andriani's military shoe, and, although still resentful, Bardona was willing to call quits when Andriani departed in haste without further comment upon the musical abilities of his friend.

The police were notified about midnight last night, and Inspectors Kyle and Nails are seeking Bardona. The residents at Fifty-first and Alameda avenue were aroused last night by the shooting, and reports came to the police that murder had been committed.

DISLIKE SERENADE. Bardona is said to have made a visit to the Andriani home late last night, when he commenced a beautiful serenade under the window of Andriani's bedroom. Andriani did not like the singing, and was in some doubts about Bardona's intentions in coming at that hour as a midnight serenade.

Andriani left his bed, donned his clothes and went forth to remonstrate with the singer. He explained that he did not like his voice, and his sermon was objectionable. He even went so far as to speak disparagingly of Bardona's relatives and ancestry, commenting upon their ability as singers, and saying that they were a race of back-bite rats. This was too much for Bardona, and he proceeded to return the compliment.

The altercation is said to have resulted in Bardona taking a shot at Andriani, thereby terminating the musical discussion.

He was a native of France, aged 81 years.

FRIEDMANN WILL TREAT 100 CASES

Berlin Physician to Proceed With Government Clinic Soon.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Dr. Frederick F. Friedmann announced last night that he would proceed with his promised government clinic at which he will treat one hundred patients with his tuberculosis vaccine as soon as his incubator has been repaired. This apparatus, which regulates the temperature of the culture, broke down. It is because of this that the German specialist declared it necessary to defer the test requested by government physicians.

Half the tuberculosis cases selected for the demonstration are in an advanced stage of the disease. Dr. Friedmann repudiated a statement credited yesterday to one of his associates that the Berlin physician would not consent to holding the clinic because so many of the patients were near death and their cases practically hopeless.

"When my incubator is repaired I will be ready, and I will stay here until I think my mission is finished," declared Dr. Friedmann.

To The Young Expectant Mother

Women of Experience Advise the Use of Mother's Friend.

There is a certain degree of trepidation in the minds of most women in regard to the subject of motherhood. The longing to be a mother is often contradicted by the labors of a period of distress.

But there need be no such dread in view of the fact that we have a most noble remedy in what is known as Mother's Friend. This is an external application that has a wonderful influence and control over the muscular tissue of the abdomen and ligaments all gently expand without the slightest strain; there is no pain, no nausea, no nervousness; what was dreaded as a severe physical ordeal becomes a calm, serene, joyful anticipation that has its immediate results in the form of a healthy baby.

Expectant mothers are advised to use Mother's Friend. It is prepared after the formula of a noted family doctor by the Franklin Regulator Co., 138 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

It is the only medicine that can be used by expectant mothers. It is sold by all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle.

each other in trying to originate something new. We are now familiar with the Cabaret Revue, the Chorus Girl Johnnies and other subjects of a like nature and this week at the local Playhouse house we are treated to a new tableau called "Lads and Lassies," which is by all odds the most appealing, purest in its jovous fun and entertainment to old and young alike, than those who have gone before dealing with the primrose path and bright lights, a baker's half dozen young stage folks, none of whom look over sweet sixteen, romp around the stage to the music of "Ring Around Rosie" and "London Bridge is Falling Down," while little folk in the audience look on with unaffected delight.

For the elders there is the seasoned fun of Jack Magee and Frances Kerry in gay repartee and for music lovers Karl shows what an ambitious program can be given on a one-string violin. For the taste of the legitimate stage, there is the act of Miss Olive Eaton and company in a merry farce and lovers of good singing can hear a quartet of girls in rhythmic harmony. Then there is Miss Verna Mercereau in classic dances, and the Three Nerveiros with an equilibrium act savoring of the sandalwood in its daring.

For the coming week the big feature, in more ways than one, will be the great and only John L. Sullivan, not the John L. of boxing days, but a gentleman in evening clothes and a top hat who tells entertainingly anecdotes of his career.

COLUMBIA.

"The Gay Deceivers" is the name of Dillon and King's latest musical comedy success now holding forth at the Columbia theater. It is a lively bit of non-sense from the rise of the curtain until the finale. Appropriate musical selections, handsome costumes, beautiful scenery and effects add much to the popularity of the skit.

The plot has to do with a pair of gay deceivers who try to gain their parents' consent to an early marriage. The young man in the case endeavors to fool his sweetheart's papa and as a result has a hard time of it. The unexpected return of his father adds to the complications.

Ben T. Dillon and Will King are appearing in the principal comedy roles with the balance of the company, Charlie Kelly, Ernest Van Pelt, Maude Beatty, Vilma Stech and Mattie Townsend cast in congenial roles.

The musical program contains many song successes, namely, "Whistle It," "The Baby With the Dimple," "Sopie Day When Dreams Come True," "Always Take A Girl Named Daisy," and "When I Meet My Honey Down In Jacksonville."

The next offering at the Columbia is "London Town," which will serve to introduce the new, roubrette, Jessie Persson, who comes to the Columbia from the East with a splendid record as a musical comedy artist.

IDORA PARK.

Dr. Carter has added some new features to his big free show at Idora Park, and the second week of the diving horses and the diving girls is proving more exciting than the first. Lamona, too, has molded his big band into one of the finest organizations that ever played at the big amusement park, and there have been many good bands there in the past.

The Friday afternoon concert should be particularly interesting to music-lovers and popular with the large gathering in matters musical. Saturday and Sunday also have been set down in Lamona's list as specially favored occasions for his very best programs.

The good weather brought out a much larger attendance than the previous week, particularly for the afternoon concerts and free shows. On Wednesday the park was thrown open to the boys from St. Joseph's academy, in charge of Brother Austin, and for two hours they worked the various attractions to the limit, not even the placid horses escaping their pleasure-seeking activities.

Preparations have been made to enter Saturday when the new Oakland & Amity electric line opens through to Walnut Creek, Bay Point, Concord and Lafayette. Manager York will distribute free tickets to every passenger coming in over the new road on that day, with an invitation to come out to Idora and hear a fine concert and see a big free show.

PANTAGES.

With the advent of the tabloid musical comedy for the stage, the producers of this style of entertainment have vied with wife later has an opportunity to prove that nobility of heart is above nobility of birth, and because the Duke's sister profits by the dancer's sacrifice, the mother forgives. The latest world events will be pictured in Pathe's Weekly and at the close Jeff will be seen trying to butt in on a good old Turkish craft with unpleasant results to himself (not the audience).

Detective William J. Burns and the beautiful Alice Joyce, the Kalam star will be featured together next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in what is claimed to be one of the greatest plays of the day—"The Exposure of the Land Swindlers."

YE LIBERTY.

The real concert treat of the season will take place in Ye Liberty playhouse in Oakland tomorrow afternoon, when Clara Butt, the foremost of all the contraltos, and her talented baritone husband, Kennerley Rumford, will give their only recital in Oakland. At the Cort theater last Sunday, the great songstress created a most profound sensation, duplicating scenes which were enacted many years ago at the first appearance of Patti in San Francisco. She had but finished her first number when the big audience began clamoring for encore after encore, and at the finish of the concert a big demonstration took place in her honor. No artist in many years has evoked the unstinted praise of San Francisco's music critics and orchestra-leaders and musicians as has Clara Butt. Tickets are now on sale at Ye Liberty box-office.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ORDERED TO BUY FLAG

SEATTLE, Wash., April 3.—A large new American flag with 48 stars now adorns the west wall of Superior Judge John E. Humphries' courtroom but it was not placed there by the commissioners of King county whom the court had ordered to procure a flag or go to jail for contempt of court. The flag was the gift of the Federated Women's Clubs of Seattle and although it was accepted by Judge Humphries he will not cease his efforts to compel the county to buy a flag unless the Supreme Court makes permanent the writ of prohibition issued by Justice George J. Morris last night and which prevented Judge Humphries sending the commissioners to jail today. The order was made returnable April 11 and Judge Humphries today appointed three members of the bar to represent him when the case is called by the Supreme Court.

BREAKFAST SPLITS NATIONAL SOCIETY

Mrs. Champ Clark Has Notified
Committee She Can't Attend.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Fresh fuel was added to the flames that are trying the souls of the promoters of the "National Welcome Breakfast" to be given for Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, Saturday, when Mrs. Champ Clark, wife of the Speaker of the House, notified them she would not attend. Mrs. Clark pleaded a previous engagement. Those who have declined to go to the breakfast on the ground that Democratic women are being discriminated against were jubilant today when the news of Mrs. Clark's defection was made known.

The question of precedence at the breakfast also is giving the promoters trouble. They evolved a plan by which friction in the cabinet circle is to be avoided by having the wives of the cabinet officers ranged at Mrs. Wilson's table in the same position as their husbands occupy in the cabinet room. Mrs. Clark, however, was to have been placed at Mrs. Wilson's left, Mrs. Bryan occupying the honor place at the right hand of the wife of the president.

CHURCH HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Centennial Presbyterian Hears Good Reports and Elects New Officers.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Centennial Presbyterian Church of East Oakland was held last night. Reports from the various departments of the church were submitted, all of which showed very encouraging increase in activities over previous years.

The Sunday school particularly showed a large gain in regular attendance and is in good financial shape. The general financial condition of the church as shown by the treasurer's report proved to be the best report rendered for many years.

W. P. D. Brown in a few remarks expressed on behalf of the session and the board of trustees the appreciation of the faithful and untiring efforts of the Pastor, Herbert E. Hays, both in the pulpit and in personal work, and recommended to the congregation that an increase be made in his salary. This recommendation was unanimously accepted by the congregation and the proposed raise was made.

AUTO BLOWS UP; TWO OCCUPANTS INJURED

CHICAGO, April 3.—S. Cooper and William Harrison of San Francisco nearly lost their lives yesterday when the cylinders of their auto blew up, wrecking the machine and hurling them into the wreckage, which took fire and was destroyed. The men had started for San Francisco and were at the edge of the city. The auto was just purchased by Cooper for $2300 and it was his second trip. An employee of a local garage brought the victims into town.

Leslie and his family started from their home in a wagon to visit near Granton, Okla. The fire overtook them before they reached their destination.

GIRLS ARE JOLLY ON WAY TO JAIL

Jessie Clifton and Maude Shea Not Seriously Perturbed by Confession.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Jaunty and jolly as though she had not a care in the world, Jessie Clifton, the pretty art student, and her companion, Maude Shea, were taken from the city prison this morning and removed to the county jail, where they will remain until the burglary charges against them are called in the Superior Court. A short time later Patrick Shea and Bert Scherling were also removed and taken under the wing of Sheriff Hagers. The men are less confident and seem to realize that the sentence is strong against them and that their last hope of escaping a prison term was dissipated through the testimony yesterday of Lucile Sturges, known as Violet Elliott. This "tarnish" woman has not been charged by the police, who are protecting her and giving her every comfort in the city prison because she has turned state's evidence against the four members of the gang whose total stealings are said to aggregate more than $10,000.

In a quiet manner Miss Sturges yesterday told how she had come here from Olympia last August and had become acquainted with the gang at their St. Louis fair. She stated she came with the weapon, she declared, while the men entered and robbed Cherry's clothing store, 2400 Mission street.

WITNESS IS HELD. In order to prevent Lucile Sturges from leaving the State, where she is needed as a witness against the gang, Detective Sergeant Dinan today placed a burglary charge against her. The accusation will probably not be heard in the police court but will be continued from time to time while the other cases are disposed of in the higher courts.

JURY WILL DECIDE PROBATION MATTER

Clemency in Prospect for A. R. Bell, Convicted of Embezzlement.

Superior Judge W. H. Donahue has put it up to the jury that convicted A. R. Bell of embezzling $980, whether or not the defendant may be admitted to probation or shall be sentenced by the court. When the jury rendered its verdict several days ago it recommended clemency. Relatives of Bell have volunteered to sweep part of the amount of the embezzlement if he is placed on probation. The complaining witness is Mrs. Verna Shaw Boyer, who inadvertently gave Bell power of attorney which he took advantage of. It is charged to have nearly $1000 from her uncle, spending the money on automobiles and jewelry.

FRAUD IS CHARGED IN HIGHWAY FIGHT

E. T. Earl Accused of Deceit in Letter of O. J. D. Stitt.

SACRAMENTO, April 3.—Charges of fraud in connection with the Los Angeles-Bakersfield State Highway project have been made by O. J. D. Stitt of Bakersfield, in a letter to Governor Johnson. Stitt declares that E. T. Earl, because of his ownership of considerable property in and about Palmdale, and along the proposed Tehachap route, which would be greatly benefited by the selection of that route by the Highway Commission, has, through his papers, given publicity to false affidavits relative to the California highway project, in which the State Highway Commission has already twice unanimously decided.

In the battle for the State Highway, the champions of the "short" route claim that the Tehachap route, being about 10 miles longer, would cost for its construction the $400,000 more than the route proposed by the "long" route. The contest for the highway route was led by E. T. Earl's newspaper, the Los Angeles Tribune, and the Express, and many affidavits purporting to show the superior conditions of the Tehachap route were published by these papers. Among other things, Earl published a photograph purporting to have been taken on the Tehachap highway, showing an automobile surrounded by snow, and with snow on the surrounding hills. The paper stated that the automobile had been stalled by the depth of snow.

BRANDS IT FALSE. The incident cited by Stitt's letter to the Governor was the subject of a letter to the Highway Commission, in which it was stated that some interests are endeavoring to practice the "California highway" method of deception. It is shown by a photograph which shows a car on a hill, and which shows an automobile surrounded by snow on the hills. The driver of the automobile that was photographed, John Connolly, having been sworn on the Highway Commission, appeared and asked permission to make an affidavit which I have seen and which will be filed in the commission. In this affidavit Connolly states that the snow was piled up in front of the machine and that the picture was taken for the purpose of taking a picture and making a wintry effect.

Towards the beginning of his letter, Stitt calls attention to the State Highway Commission having under consideration the two routes known as the "short" route and the "long" route, and declares that the proponents of the Tehachap route "have endeavored to prevent the selection of the shorter route by submitting to the commission evidence which I am in a position to know is absolutely, and I believe criminally, false."

CONGRESSMEN JOIN BULL MOOSE CAMP

Curry and Stephens From California Will Attend Progressive Caucus.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Two members of the California congressional delegation, Representatives Stephens and Curry, today allied themselves with the Bull Moose wing of the House organization. The two congressmen issued a statement saying they would participate in the caucus next Friday of the Bull Moose House members.

With the addition of the Stephens and Curry announcement, Representative Kent dropped from the Bull Moose party in the Democratic camp.

Kent sent a circular letter today to his constituents declaring that he "declines" a third-party organization in the House and that hereafter he is a Democrat and a Wilson man. This astonished nobody in Washington.

NAVAL OFFICERS TO FOLLOW SEA AGAIN

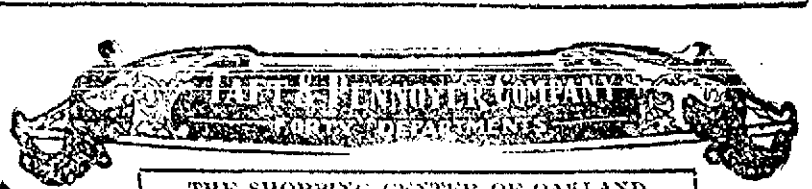

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Following the change in the had of the navigation bureau of the Navy Department will come others of almost equal importance in the near future. The four members of the staff of the bureau, chief of the bureau of steam engineering, expires May 18, and at his own request the officer will go to sea, returning to his actual rank of lieutenant-commander.

Rear Admiral Nathan C. Twining, who, in the ordinary course, would have two years yet to serve as chief of the bureau of ordnance, is understood to have applied for seas service, and soon will be relieved from the bureau. Captain Edward Eberle, at present commanding the torpedo boat flotilla of the Atlantic fleet, is believed to have been selected to succeed him.

GIFT OF HISTORIC SHIP CARRIES STRING

SACRAMENTO, April 3.—With a little message in which he declared it would be "futile" to sign such a measure, Governor Johnson sent back to the legislature yesterday Senator Gibson's bill providing for the acceptance by the State of California of the United States ship Portsmouth, which recently was donated by the national government as an object of historical interest and value.

The Governor's objection to the bill lay in the fact that whereas the Portsmouth is now lying at anchor off the coast of Virginia, he is authorized only to accept the ship "at some California port." No appropriation for the repair and transportation of the ancient vessel was contained in the Shanahan bill.

Wilson and the Office-Seekers.

The rush of office-seekers to Washington has been greatly exaggerated, according to a letter written to the New York Sun by Private Dalzell, a veteran Republican with a wide experience in politics. Dalzell says the number of applicants to present themselves in person is surprisingly small under the circumstances. He says the rush is nothing like it was in 1885 and 1893, nor even as fierce as it was when McKinley was inaugurated in 1897. If he is to be believed the great majority of the Democrats who have appeared in Washington since Wilson's inauguration came to visit the capital to celebrate the accession of a Democratic President and not to ask for jobs.

From the South great swarms came to see a Southern man once more in the White House, and the colleges all over the country sent delegations to see the successful scholar in politics and take a look at a President who is first of all and pre-eminently a college man.

But the crowds came to see and not to beg, says Dalzell. They were eager, curious, happy sight-seers and not office-seekers. Their presence was significant not merely of a change in political supremacy, but of a moral, intellectual and economic change in the nation.

Private Dalzell says the patronage question is not nearly so troublesome to Wilson as it was to Cleveland, as a result, he thinks, of more prosperous conditions in the country at large and a self-restraint which he considers both remarkable and admirable. The visitors talk politics wherever they go and discuss appointments with a frank freedom in hotels, on the streets and in all the public places where sight-seers gather, but they are not in Washington seeking jobs under the government. Business at home is more remunerative and attractive. The government service is not the ignis fatuus that it once was, and the emoluments of private employment have gone up, while government salaries have remained stationary. A better knowledge of the cost of living in Washington and the exacting conditions of government employment has rubbed the glamor off the public service.

The desire to give Wilson a fair chance has also deterred office-seekers from pushing their claims with too much insistence. This desire is general, and its moral effect has been tremendous. In consequence Wilson has a freer hand than any President within Dalzell's remembrance. His strength with the nation is not that of mere personal popularity or party enthusiasm. It springs from the moral purpose and good sense of the people who are anxious that our schoolmaster President should succeed in restoring stability to our shaken political institutions and relieve the business of the government from the fungus of partisan manipulation and the rank growth of self-interest.

In the South this sentiment largely prevails: "We have the President; let us not make him ashamed of us or the country ashamed of him." When Cleveland was inaugurated the first time the South was impoverished, stagnant, despondent and unprosperous. The rapacity, corruption and incompetence of carpet-bag government had about completed the ruin wrought by the desolation and devastation of war. A new industrial order was just beginning to be established. The work of restoration and rehabilitation had not proceeded far enough to remove the atmosphere of gloom and despondency. The election of a Democratic President was hailed as a relief from hated political conditions, but as an opening to advancement and emolument. The South was full of poor and proud men unable to accommodate themselves to the new order. They all wanted office. Necessity knows no law; neither has it discretion or modesty, and poverty and humiliation leave men only the tatters of self-respect. Cleveland had to meet this hungry horde, every member of which was the grandson of somebody or the grandnephew of somebody else. He could not be disgusted, but he was too clear-sighted and too kind-hearted not to perceive that he was face to face with the minor tragedies growing out of a great tragedy. The struggle for place was not merely a clamor for patronage, but the final effort of an expiring class to perpetuate existence. It was shameful, yet it was pitiful, and, moreover, it was perfectly natural.

Happily Wilson is spared the ordeal through which Cleveland passed—an ordeal that the South remembers with chastened feelings and a tinge of humiliation. The South is prosperous if not rich. Officeholding is no longer the gentleman's profession in that section. The poor white has asserted himself, and in the crude democracy now dominant in the old slave States the cultured, polished representative of a restricted and superior caste no longer speaks for the mass or stands for the ideals of the mass. The South is working out its own salvation, and has not only realized that the old order has forever passed, but has accepted the passage with cheerful content and is making the best of the situation in a hopeful and courageous spirit that has once more made self-respect stand erect and defiant.

That is one of the results Private Dalzell has perceived. It is a result that speaks well for our country and people. The South has recovered its confidence, its prosperity, and, best of all, its place in the Union and the feeling that it is no longer a prodigal and recreant son at the family board. The New South has no ruling class and does not depend upon office. There are impeccable job-chasers in the South to be sure, as they are everywhere, but the situation there is not different from the situation in other sections of the country. The point is that the South has become normal and that the political equilibrium has been completely restored.

A Measure of Practical Benefit.

It is worth noting that there is some useful constructive legislation pending at Sacramento—some measures which are sincere and well-digested efforts to serve the public weal. It is a relief to turn from the freaks and fads presented as cures for social, economic or political ills to some modest measure dictated by common sense intended to serve only the public interest in a practical way.

A measure of this kind is the bill introduced empowering boards of supervisors to levy a larger special tax than the law now authorizes to create a fund to defray the cost of advertising the resources of the respective counties. The object of this bill is to bring settlers and capital into the State of California. If the aim was merely to raise money by taxation to spend on advertising in the local papers we would hardly feel justified in saying a word in favor of the bill. But the intent is quite different. It is to provide ample funds to defray the cost of promotion and publicity wisely and systematically directed to secure the largest and most beneficial results. While the local papers will undoubtedly get some of the money, as they should, the bulk of it will be expended in advertising California in distant communities, where the resources, attractions and advantages of this State need to be known if the right kind of people are to be induced to come here.

JOY-FILCHERS, TAKE NOTICE!

The bill provides for a scheme of systematic advertising that will include every section, interest and resource in the State. It empowers the Supervisors of every county to levy a special tax to be expended in advertising the resources of that county and appoint a commission (to serve without pay) to control the expenditure and direct the work of advertising and promotion. This commission will select a publicity agent of experience and capacity who will prepare the advertising matter and attend to the details of publication in such mediums as the commission, with the approval of the Supervisors, shall select. Thus the advertising will be directed by responsible and experienced business men, and it will be done in accordance with strictly business principles.

Some of the European countries and cities advertise extensively in American journals and magazines. In this way they endeavor to attract tourists, students and health-seekers. Düsseldorf, Germany, is a notable example. That city is an art center and a great manufacturer of art goods. Düsseldorf's business men have discovered that it pays to advertise in England and America. Advertising brings travelers to their hotels, students to their art schools and musical conservatories and customers to their stores and factories. We want people to come here, make their homes among us, buy our land and develop our resources. Düsseldorf gets what she wants by advertising intelligently for it. That is precisely what we should do.

The bill will enable us to do this. Therefore it will confer a substantial benefit on the people as a whole in every section of the State. It provides the revenue and creates the machinery to do the work, and is in all respects a carefully considered plan of promotion and development that will yield enormous returns to the public at large.

Here is practical legislation worth while—a well thought out scheme to promote the public welfare, in which neither politics nor private interest has a part. It is just plain business, but it is good business, paying business, the sort of business that builds up a country and increases the measure of its prosperity.

BURGLARS NOT PARTICULAR

Burglars can't be choosers. All they can do is to take things as they find them. The nature of their indiscreet calling prevents their being fussy in their selection of articles to be carried away.

Anything convertible into cash will do, and sometimes even that point is not essential, as in the case of the purloiners of the Mona Lisa, where museumary notions probably for once yielded to the burglar's love of beauty.

Just at the present we seem to be passing through an area of freak burglaries.

Only the other day ingenious thieves attempted to steal $15,000 worth of Panama hats from a downtown loft by carting them away, literally by the thousand, in the still hours of early morning.

In Paris recently a burglar, disgruntled because he could not lay his hands on anything worth taking, softened his disappointment by going to the pantry and regaling himself with a bite at the butter. It proved his undoing, because he was traced by his tooth-marks on the butter pat.

A short time ago several burglars established a precedent by carrying away a hot stove, fire and all, from a boatman's shanty. The intrepid thieves performed the feat by wrapping the stove in wet cloths.

A thief lately depleted the poor box in a church by extracting the coins through the slot at the top with the aid of a wire to which a piece of adhesive plaster was attached. Another villain of the deepest dye robbed a fruit stand and stuffed his pockets with cigarettes, candy and fruit.

Several weeks ago a couple of enterprising crooks cut the Western Union cables near New Brunswick and got away with 100 feet of copper wire.

Stealing brass and lead pipe does not sound like high class work, but that sort of theft, far from being unusual, provides a regular living for many thieves. Recently some of the fraternity varied the proceedings by passing from a plumbing establishment to an adjoining tea store and mixing their heavy swag with a few light and portable bags of tea and coffee.—New York Sun

THE MENACE OF FICTION

Staggered by the overplus of fiction, long and short, that sweeps over us like a flood from books and magazines, Mr. Howells asks, "Who reads them all, and, worse yet, who writes them all?" His sympathies are perhaps unevenly divided, for the writer in him springs to another question—whether the published stories selected at least twice as many stories rejected." With this thought he sits uneasily in his "Easy Chair" in the March dapples, contending with the vision of "a good half of the best periodicals" devoted largely to fiction; and at least half a dozen monthlies and semi-monthlies, by no means the worst, "wholly abandoned to different lengths and breadths of fiction." Then, in addition, "the insidious short story and the opifidian serial subtly insinuate themselves into our most serious reviews." Every country newspaper has its story, long or short, every Avenue paper in every city has its novel or novelette, every Sunday issue of every journal includes in its huge mass whole hoards of fiction." Then Mr. Howells tries a little mathematics.

"Think of the four thousand short stories written every month, and you have the effect of a conjecture which if it is true in part statistical is prodigious. Say there are only two thousand short stories written in a month, and only a little more than twelve thousand a year, and you still have a total involving an amount of enormous ambition, of trusting toil, of untiring exertion, of unrelenting labor, of soul-shrinking toils. In the horrid prospect, one was willing the whole twelve thousand should be printed and the reader left to take the consequences. After all, it is not a single reader who takes the consequences. Counting only ten readers to each story (there are more, probably fifty or five hundred), there would be enough readers to take the consequences, if they were equally apportioned, without serious structural damage."—Literary Digest

STORIES OF PLACES

Montrose, Scotland, is to be an aviation station, and the appearance of flying machines there is enough, according to the London Chronicle, to bring some of the good old ladies of that town out of their graves. It was one of them, as Dean Ramsey records, who protested against steam vessels, as contravening the decrees of providence in going against wind and tide. "I would have nothing to say to these impious vessels," she insisted. Another was equally shocked by the introduction of gas in place of oil, demanding, "What is to become of the poor whales?"

When Mulai Hafit, ex-sultan of Morocco, succeeded to the sultanate, he found the sacred city of Fez infested by rats. Without any loss of time he at once nationalized all the cats of Morocco and issued a command that many thousands of them should be marched into Fez for service. For some time a law has existed in Hongkong making it compulsory to keep cats in every house, the number varying according to the size of the house.

Providence, Mass., said to be the richest town in the world per capita, does not permit moving pictures. The children of wealthy parents must find other amusement. They know nothing of the delights of the "movies."—Chicago News.

A NEW NOBILITY

When we are uncertain about anything we go to Emerson or the Supreme Court—Emerson preferably, and this is his opinion "The first farmer was the first man, and all historic nobility rests on possession and use of the land." The poet Emerson said:

In ancient times the sacred Plough employed The Kings and awful Fathers of mankind.

And he also declared the farmer "held the scale of empire, ruled the storm of mighty war." One of the few sentiments of Prince Albert that are remembered was "The country gentleman with his wife and children—the country clergyman, the tenant, and the laborer, yet form a great and united family in which we gladly recognize the foundation of the social state." Until well after the middle of the last century the farmer held his primacy, but in this country after the Civil war there were vast changes and Quick Wealth shoved the farmer into the background.

Now the pendulum is swinging back, and today the country gentleman with his family and well cultivated acres, is becoming more and more the ideal. With crops that will soon average an annual total of ten billions of dollars, this comfortable American farmer can look any plutocrat in the eye and smile. Even the plutocrats are spending vast fortunes to imitate him, but mere imitation or prodigality only serve to emphasize the merits of the genuine article. The fine thing about the country gentleman is that he is as veritable on ten acres as on 1000, his kingship is not in area, but in his pleasant, independent life; his bearing toward his neighbors and his ripening in thought and character with the processes of the seasons.

Our historic nobility could have no better basis than this—none more live. It is everything that is good. Our dollar aristocracy is a social failure and it is possible that the peace movement may take the pride out of war and leave the colonial societies nothing to fight over. Thus we see that in going back to the farm society is not only refreshing and revitalizing, but is learning where the best family trees grow.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

RAGTIME IN BRITAIN

Ragtime in Britain appears as absurd as a snowstorm in Sahara. To set the feet of stolid John Bull tripping to the evocative measure of the typical American "tune" is an achievement worthy of commemoration in the annals of history.

The rapid intonation of the "rag" appears to fit exactly with the American people. Ours is a rapid race. It delights in action. It craves change. It gets all of these in the "rag."

However, tradition has represented John Bull as a rather stodgy gentleman, very set in his views, rather slow and decidedly sure, about all things, opposed to changes of any kind.

Typical of this characteristic has been the more or less vague resentment expressed by some eminent men in Britain over America's construction of the Panama Canal, which will involve radical readjustment of British trading customs.

While the country has not been slow to take advantage of the improvement, not a few solid and substantial factors have done so unwaveringly and with a certain sense of outraged propriety.

That such a land should fall a victim to the madcap airs originated in the United States and sung wherever the Stars and Stripes float is truly marvelous.

It demonstrates either a latent lightness in the English temper of which the world previously was in ignorance, or it is an indication of a radical change in his line of thought.

Possibly, the suffragettes have something to do with it. Maybe it's the labor question or the disturbance of his mental equilibrium due to overmuch brooding on the possibility of an armed clash with the German Kaiser.

In an event, the "rag" appears to "have him going." He is "wisting up" to American slang. He is "getting hep to himself" in his musical sense. The first shock in our tradition will occur when a genius in Whitechapel starts to originate "rag"—Seattle Times.

You can't fool all the people all the time, but if you can fool half the people half of the time you will soon break into the predatory rich class.—Chicago News

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"I was always tired and weak and my housework was a drag. I was irregular, had cramps so bad that I would have to lie down, also a distressed feeling in lower part of back, and headache. My abdomen was sore and I know I had organic inflammation."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have helped me wonderfully. I don't have those pains any more and I am all right now. There are a great many women here who take your remedies and I have told others what they have done for me."—Mrs. CHAS. McKONNOR, 1013 N. 5th St. W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by woman and held in strict confidence.

STUDENT'S SWEETHEARTS
THINK ONLY OF LOVE

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

(Copyright, 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.)

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

are jolly fellows, snapping their fingers at restrictions which bind the heart. There are many girls in such places who are as audacious as they are beguiling. They meet and fall desperately in love. What jolly young student ever gave a thought to the family tree so long as he gets a bright girl with cheek and lip the hue of a wild rose, and her smile an entrancingly sweet? Love levels all ranks and lifts the daughter of a totem to a seat beside a king on his throne. There are many students who improve the shining hours. Once in a while there is one of which it might be said, with apology for transposition, "Pretty girls' looks were his only books, and folly all they taught him."

When this class of young man is away from his parental roof, and beyond his mother's watchful eye, and without her influence to counsel and guide him, he stumbles blindfolded into many a rut which seems dug for his feet to fall into.

Young college fellows, with no thought of care to occupy their minds, and who do not have to worry about their future, are the ones who seem bent upon finding amusement to pass away dull leisure. What is more natural than that they should look with kindly eyes upon the lassies who long to have a student for a beau? And O how these romances take hold of both hearts! "Lightly falls the foot of time that only treads on flowers." When a young man is house and heart and soul in the love he will give up every other ambition on earth rather than his sweetheart. He dreads the hour of parting from her when he has to return home. The more he thinks of it the more determined he becomes that he could not live without her. There is a hurried proposal, a romantic marriage. He brings home a bride. If there is another son in the family they worry till he comes back to them heart whole and free.

WANTS TO ACT IN PICTURE SHOW.

"Dear Miss Libbey: Will you kindly give me a location of some place where I can act in moving picture shows. I am a young man, 20 years old, and I would like to act in picture shows."

I would suggest that you write to the Selig Polyscope Company, 20 East Randolph street, Chicago, or to the American Film Manufacturing Company, 155 North Clark street, Chicago, in regard to the moving picture work you have in mind.

DIDN'T ACKNOWLEDGE GIFT.

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 28, have been keeping company for about a year with a young lady one year my junior, whom I love very dearly and who has reciprocated my love. It seems the parents of this young lady are very much opposed to me, although when speaking of them and asking the cause of their opposition they say there is none. About three months ago my friend left the city, but wrote me regularly until about two months ago. Having sent her a valuable Christmas present and several post cards and not having received an answer as to whether she has received any of these, do you think she is acting toward me as she ought to? Do you think it best to forget her?"

Yes, I think you better do so. The girl certainly has not acted right. Common courtesy demanded an acknowledgment of a gift that has been accepted. I think you better forget her.

"MENTALLY HIS INFERIOR."

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 28, desperately in love with a young lady of 22. I have been going with her for about twelve months and at one time had decided to 'pop the question.' I know she would have accepted, for she loves me dearly. Not long ago I was very reliably informed that this was at one time not a very nice girl. However, I continued going with her, as I know her to have been a nice, respectable girl. Now I am a teacher by profession, also studying for the ministry. I have been told that to

EDISON'S SON IS ACCIDENT VICTIM

Bottle Bomb Explodes, Imbedding Glass in Boy's Hand.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., April 3.—Theodore Edison's "Bully Invention," a glass bottle bomb, designed to strike the ships of "the enemy," smashed itself to pieces while the fourteen-year-old son of Thomas A. Edison was experimenting in his father's laboratory. Bits of glass were imbedded in young Edison's right hand. No injury resulted that will be permanent. The boy's idea was a floating bomb constructed to explode upon coming in contact with another object.

"Some of your first inventions blew up, didn't they, Dad?" young Edison asked after the accident. "They did," replied his father, "but I went back at them," to which Theodore replied, "So will I." Mrs. Edison let it be known, however, that hereafter Thomas A. Edison must be present when their son experiments.

LOWLANDS INUNDED.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., April 3.—Hundreds of acres of lowlands are inundated today by the continued rise in the Chippewa river. The most serious damage is at Coburn, 28 miles north. Five hundred persons were forced last night to desert their homes and take refuge in the highlands. Today the water had reached the tops of the houses.

No matter how long you suffered, or what other remedies have failed to cure, Foley's Kidney Pills will surely help you. They are genuine tonic, strengthening and curative, built up the kidneys and restore their regular action. John Veltbert, Foster, Calif., says: "I suffered many years with kidney trouble and could never get relief until I tried Foley's Kidney Pills, which effected a complete cure." Wisher's Drug Store, 1091 Washington St., corner Tenth.

N MOST families where there is a son there is much planning by his parents as to his future. First of all they make up their minds that he must have a college education. His father carved out fame and fortune from the learning he gleaned at a country school. Yet they determine that the son shall have all the advantages of the present day can give. Quite as likely as not the son, a jolly, rollicking, devil-may-care young fellow, fights strenuously the idea of being sent to college. He does not love books and studies, his mind runs to having a good time, seeing "his father's rich and ma don't care!" Uncle, to whom mother appeals, washes his hands of the consequence, humbly suggesting his decision. "You may lead a dog to water, but you cannot make him drink; you may lead a lad to college, but you cannot make him think."

The first fortnight at college the young fellow is lonely enough. But who ever heard of a young man being dreary for long in a college town? Such cities and towns are the mecca of thousands of girls and marriage is in the air. For years it has been a standing joke that a father who has a household of daughters, poor but pretty, and with some pride, always strives to locate in a college town to get them married off. As it may be, wherever there are colleges there are thousands of bewitching maidens. Despite the field rules of the contrary, young people have been known to make eyes at each other and have been known to flirt, for the students of the college are not blind to the heart.

Young college fellows, with no thought of care to occupy their minds, and who do not have to worry about their future, are the ones who seem bent upon finding amusement to pass away dull leisure. What is more natural than that they should look with kindly eyes upon the lassies who long to have a student for a beau? And O how these romances take hold of both hearts! STACHLER CLUB
LAUDS CANDIDATESBig Enthusiastic Political Love
Feast Held at Stachler Hall
Friday Evening.

A regular meeting and high jinks was held by the Eugene Stachler Political and Improvement Club at Stachler's Hall, 3121, Adeline street, Friday evening, March 28, Stanley Morris, presiding.

After the regular routine of business the following program was carried out: Opening address by Angell; Assessor George Gross spoke in behalf of the Stachler Club and commended them for the good work they are doing in the north end; Ralph Allison made a very interesting speech in behalf of the candidates for office; Commissioner Harry Anderson explained in detail all the good work that was going on in Oakland and from the water front and stated that the people of Oakland will, in short time, have advantages which they do not now realize. Music was furnished at intervals by the Stachler string band; song by Mr. Latterman of the club, song by the trio of the club. Eugene Stachler spoke on the good work the club was doing and commended the candidates for office and spoke in behalf of Wm. J. Bacus, commissioner of streets, and Miss Brown for school directors.

M. R. Brommer and Cook, present school directors, spoke on the good work going on in the school of Oakland. Refreshments were served all evening and a general good time was indulged in. The meeting adjourned at 12 o'clock.

BIG PRICE PAID FOR STOCKTON BUILDING SITE

STOCKTON, April 3.—The largest realty deal of the year was consummated yesterday when Mrs. Mary A. Ferguson of this city purchased from R. D. Rothenbush of Stockton and Wm. J. Thompson of Los Angeles the property occupied by the Coffee Club for $125,000.

The site is in California street north, half a block from Main, 150x100 feet. The price of $125,000 for front foot sets a record for property of Main street.

The new owner will make extensive improvements, adding two stories.

OAKLAND DRUGGISTS
DESERVE PRAISE

Osgood Bros., druggists, corner 12th and 12th, deserve praise from Oakland people for introducing here the simple buckthorn bark and glycerine mixture known as Adler-Lax. This simple German remedy first became famous by curing appendicitis and it has now been discovered that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. It's quick action is a big surprise to people.

WE recommend the Royal Baking Powder as superior to all others. It is indispensable for finest food.

LOVETT WILL NOT DISCUSS MERGERSays Attorney-General Is Still Looking Over the Papers.

NEW YORK, April 2.—R. S. Lovett, chairman of the Southern Pacific board, declined yesterday to comment on the report that Attorney General McReynolds has found fault with the details of the latest dissolution propositions. He said: "I want over with the Attorney General the entire situation as regards the Union Pacific dissolution problem and put before him all the facts, including all the various possibilities and their prospective results, so far as I can see."

"I left with him a number of documents which he desired to study and I expect to hear from him within a week. Then we shall probably have to go before the court for further instructions." "The Attorney General says he is going to give this matter his entire time now, so far as possible. So far as I can see, Attorney General McReynolds' attitude on this question differs in no vital respect from that of the former attorney general."

Asked whether this meant that Attorney General McReynolds would, as did his predecessor, insist on the sale of Central Pacific to Union Pacific, Lovett said:

"I do not know what position the Attorney General has taken in this matter in so far as Southern Pacific is concerned."

"We have not submitted any provisional plan. All we have done is to put the entire subject so far as we are able before the Attorney General so that he may indicate to us what his attitude will be on the various propositions, including what is a principal feature, the question as to how we can dispose of our $125,000,000 Southern Pacific stock without needless sacrifice. I do not know whether the court would allow us to retain any part of this stock."

AMERICA IS AN INDUSTRIAL GIANTBut the Giant Has Been Asleep
and Is Now Awakening, Says Redfield.

NEW YORK, April 3.—American industry long has been a sleeping giant and is but now awakening; the country is just reaching out to take her place in the commercial arena of the world, in the opinion of William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, who addressed the graduating class of the New York Trade School tonight.

"The great corporations that carry on 'big business' are adjusting themselves to meet the will of the people," Secretary Redfield said. "They begin to realize that their security lies on service and in that alone. The men within the mill are admitted on every hand to be of far greater value than the mill itself, and profits are deemed wrong that spring from repression of the worker. The industries of America are shaking off the shackles, and face serenely the prospects of competition before which many of them have cowered in the past."

DIVORCE ATTORNEY
FACES DISBARMENT

MINNEAPOLIS, April 3.—John A. Gintvalley, an attorney here since 1893, was convicted of advertising to secure divorces, by a jury in District Court here. The penalty is disbarment from practicing in any of the courts in this state, and a possible term in the state penitentiary. He will be sentenced May 5.

COMMITTS SUICIDE.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 3.—John W. Woyks, local manager of the Woykawood Lumber Company, with headquarters in Glasgow, Scotland, committed suicide early this evening by shooting himself through the head.

Out of Sorts

THAT IS, something is wrong with baby, but we can't tell just what it is. All mothers recognize the term by the lassitude, weakness, loss of appetite, inclination to sleep, heavy breathing, and lack of interest shown by baby. These are the symptoms of sickness. It may be fever, congestion, worms, croup, diphtheria, or scarlatina. Do not lose a minute. Give the child Castoria. It will start the digestive organs into operation, open the pores of the skin, carry off the foetid matter, and drive away the threatened sickness.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Williams.

A Great
Modern Convenience

Aside from the great comfort and convenience of electricity as a lighting factor, it greatly adds to the beauty of the home. It gives the house a modern, up-to-date appearance and makes things cheery. Why burn dirty, smelly lamps when electricity may be enjoyed at a very small cost? Electricity is quick, convenient. With it in the house bright light is always at hand simply by pressing a button. Write us for full information.

LARGE SUMS COLLECTED BY TAG-DAY WORKERS

Mayor Mott Thanks Women Who Worked for Flood Sufferers

Mayor Frank K. Mott stated this morning to the women of the city of Oakland who worked yesterday in the interests of the Oakland relief fund that was turned over to Treasurer James P. Edoff of the general relief committee. The women worked against great odds—both because of the fact that they were hurriedly organized and did not have time to secure a sufficiently large number of helpers and because many Oaklanders considered that they had already donated through the many organizations that have contributed directly.

Treasurer Edoff thinks that the results of the day would be far-reaching and that big contributions will come in for several days as the result of the stirring up of Oakland by the women.

L. A. Hearin, chairman of the committee on automobiles which were used by the fair taggers, said that a word of thanks was due those who so willingly had placed their machines at the disposal of the women.

"The cars never did a nobler service," stated Hearin, "and the generosity of the givers is fully appreciated by the progress and prosperity committee."

DO GOOD WORK.

One party in an auto did particularly active work. Chaperoned by Mrs. Eva J. Broadwell they were Miss Bessie Broadwell, Miss Joe Reynolds, Miss Jessie Harmon and Miss Mabel Gustafson.

Mrs. Morris Falk made a record, bringing in $610.88. Mrs. John Mole collected $532.20. Mrs. Peter Crinnion brought in $257 and Mrs. J. N. Porter $236.80. Mrs. Nellie Nelson collected through the Durant school $105.80, as well as other sums from private residences. The Abrahamson Mutual Benefit Society turned over $50 to the committee, the Mutual Benefit Society of the Jackson Furniture Company $25, William Mollard $25.

RANSOM PAID BY GERMAN CONSUL

Max Muller Was Held by the Sonora Rebels for $10,000,
Which Wife Paid.

Muller Now Ill at Los Angeles;
Wife Says Its Dangerous to Talk.

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—Max Muller, German consul agent at Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, and vice-president of the Bank of Sonora, who was imprisoned by rebels and released after he had paid $10,000 ransom, lay ill in a darkened room in a Los Angeles hotel today while Mrs. Muller, in charge of his sick room, declined to permit interviewers to enter.

Mrs. Muller, herself nearly ill from the shock of the repeated threats against her husband's life while in Mexico, declared it was "dangerous to talk" and therefore had nothing to say except that a ransom of $10,000 had been paid to gain her husband's freedom.

PAID RANSOM.

"We paid it," Mrs. Muller said, "and now we are free. We are not going back until the trouble has subsided. Sonora is in a highly unsettled state. But I must not say any more." Muller was arrested by the Constitutionalists authorities at Hermosillo several weeks ago, when he declined to negotiate a loan. A rebel raid on the institution later revealed that Muller had taken precaution to remove the bank's funds to a place of safety.

THANKS EXPRESSED FOR THE USE OF AUTOS

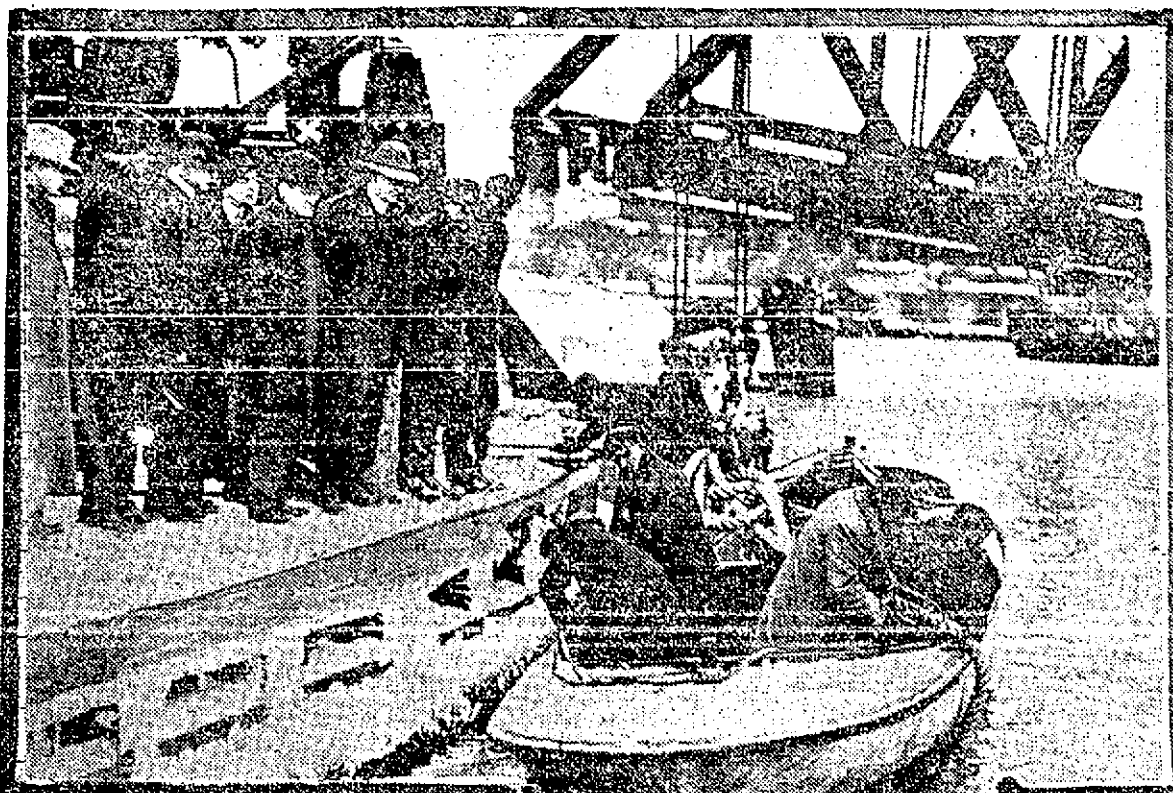

For the automobiles which were so generously donated to the use of the ladies who worked Wednesday on behalf of the relief fund the Progress and Prosperity Committee of the Chamber of Commerce desires to express thanks.

The machines were indispensable, owing to the fact that the entire city had to be covered and that the heads of the districts had not secured sufficient help.

DEATH DEALT BY STORM IN EAST

High Wind Sweeps Missouri
Town; Flood Is at Standstill.

Collapse of Buildings Feared
as Waters of Ohio River Recede.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 3.—A high wind storm which struck Toledo, a suburb in St. Louis county today, tore down a dozen poles carrying electric light wires and heavy feed cables, thereby causing one death. Harry Davis of Webster Groves, 13 years old, who was driving a team, was struck by the falling wires and electrocuted.

WATER RECEDES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 3.—With the waters of the Ohio receding here and no further damage expected save the possible collapse of buildings weakened by the flood, Louisville was prepared today to give more attention to questions of sanitation and relief.

The city health department has intimated it would require that flooded homes be thoroughly cleaned and dried out before owners are permitted to move in again.

Lower river points today were busy with preventive and relief work in preparation for the crest of the flood now nearly upon them. Strengthening of the levee continued at Hickman. Paducah faced a critical situation with water one to four feet deep on the many streets and still rising rapidly.

VICTIM SUCCUMBS.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, April 3.—Miss Hannah Schultze who was injured in the Easter tornado which demolished her home east of Council Bluffs, and instantly killed her aged father and mother, died last evening from the effects of her wounds, this making the twelfth death in Council Bluffs from the storm.

LIGHTNING FIRES HOTEL.

ATCHISON, Kas., April 3.—In a heavy wind and electrical storm which swept this city last night, the Byram hotel was struck by lightning and set on fire. Smoke filled the building and the guests were called out in their night clothing. The damage was slight.

About two inches of rain fell here and the streets were flooded. Reports from Nortonville, Doniphan, Stannan and other towns say that heavy rain and hail storms flooded the streets and blew down light buildings. The Missouri Pacific wires are down for half a mile near Shannon.

RAIN ADDS TO MISERY.

DE KOVEN, Ky., April 3.—Rain throughout this section began falling early today and will add greatly to the misery of 5,000 Shawneetown, Ill., refugees camped on the hillsides behind the flooded town.

The Ohio river is five miles wide and is running like a mill stream. The river rose 5 1/2 inches over night. All the lowlands are flooded.

The Illinois Central railroad is out of commission here and there are no trains running out of De Koven, which is nearly opposite Shawneetown.

CREST IS AWAITED.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 3.—Heavy rain today added to discomfort of flood sufferers in Evansville's water-swept areas, but the weather bureau said the rain was not sufficient, if it lasted all night and day, to make any change in the height of the river. The bureau observations at 7 o'clock showed a stage of 47.8 feet. The crest is expected here today.

Relief workers are well equipped and are working to help the victims. The Ohio river is five miles wide and is running like a mill stream. The river rose 5 1/2 inches over night. All the lowlands are flooded.

FLOOD BULLETIN ISSUED.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Here is today's flood bulletin:

"The Ohio river at Cincinnati has fallen one and one-half feet in the last 24 hours. The stage Thursday morning being 48 feet, 18 feet above flood stage."

"The crest of the lower Ohio flood evidently is in the neighborhood of Evansville, where the river at 7 o'clock Thursday morning was 47.8 feet, 12.8 feet above flood stage."

"The rise in the river at Cairo since Wednesday night was but 1 foot, the stage Thursday morning being 54.5 feet, 9.5 feet above the flood stage."

"The Mississippi river from Cairo to New Orleans is slowly rising, but has not yet reached a 40-foot stage at Memphis."

DAYTON CLEANS UP.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Major Rhoades, directing sanitary work in Dayton, Ohio, reported today to the War Department that the work of cleaning up was progressing satisfactorily. He expects to remain in Dayton at least ten days.

John H. Patterson, chairman of the Dayton Citizens' Relief Committee has urged President Wilson to send engineers without delay to survey the Miami river with a view to providing against the repetition of the flood disaster.

Health and sanitary conditions throughout the flooded region of Indiana rapidly are improving, according to reports today to Surgeon-General Hise of the public health service.

Today's contributions to the Red Cross Relief Fund brought the amount over the million-dollar mark.

RETURNED TO JAIL.

RICHMOND, April 3.—Henry Palmer, out on parole from the county jail, after being sentenced to a two-year term for assault with a deadly weapon upon Officer Wright of this city, was arrested at Pima yesterday and returned to jail to serve out the rest of his term. He is charged with creating a disturbance.

Neither of the men were very familiar with rowing, and when during the afternoon the wind started a heavy swell, their craft was quickly tilted and overturned turtle. They were struggling in the water when Janke saw them. He secured a boat and dragged them out of the water in an unconscious condition. They were rushed to the Abbott Hospital, where they were revived.

ex-President; Now
Professor.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 3.—The Yale undergraduates were chuckling yesterday at the expense of their latest professor, former President William Howard Taft. After the enthusiastic reception given the former president by the undergraduates, Mr. Taft attended his first faculty meeting in Phelps hall. But the faculty learned he had made a mistake. Mr. Taft failed to fill the Kent chair when called upon. The Kent chair is an ordinary professorial chair, but as soon as Mr. Taft saw it he grinned, because he knew he would not get in it.

Jim Donnelly, guardian of the college campus, whose dispatches correspond with those of Professor Taft, was summoned. Sympathetically he brought from his famous room, where the Midnight Club meets, his own leather chair, formed out of elk horns, which for years has been used by members of the Midnight Club. Two members of the club usually sit in the chair together. It was just Professor Taft's size.

DEMENTED SLAYER ENDS LIFE IN RIVER

STOCKTON, April 3.—Haunted by the face of a woman she had shot to death in Bakersfield some years ago, a negro chambermaid known as Teddy Johnson is believed to have drowned herself in Stockton channel Friday. Her body was recovered yesterday. It was thought at first the woman had met with foul play, but an investigation convinced the police that she committed suicide. Friends say that she had threatened to make away with herself on several occasions, declaring that everywhere she went the face of the woman she had killed haunted at her.

SALARY CUT FROM $3000 TO $1000; QUILTS JOB

WASHINGTON, April 3.—When one's $3000 job is suddenly slashed to $1000 it is calculated to make the victim peevish. This at least was the view taken by A. C. Parkinson, principal clerk of the Senate, when he was told by members of the patronage committee that such a reduction had been made. "Not for me," quoth Parkinson, pulling down his rattlep desk and reaching for his hat. "Take your bloomin' old job and jump off the dock with it."

Whereupon Parkinson packed his goods and chattels and now is on his way back to Wisconsin, which he left more than twenty years ago to come to Washington. He was a friend of Senator Vilas and is a Democrat.

COMPLETES LONG MOTORCAR TOUR

California Man Says Midland Trail Across Continent Is the Best.

[By EDWARD CRINNON.]

C. W. Armstrong of Callstoga has just finished a very interesting trip across the continent in his 1913 Cross-Country touring car. Armstrong, in describing his trip to Frank Page, said:

"We left Boston on November 6, having taken the delivery of my 1913 Cross-Country car there. From Boston we toured westerly through New York, New Jersey down to Baltimore, thence on through the Shenandoah valley, down to Atlanta, Ga.

"We had planned to make Florida, but found the roads impassable and turned westward, finally reaching Birmingham, Ala. We visited Vicksburg, thence on to Dallas, Tex., and to Fort Worth. From there we followed the Texas Pacific to Midland, Tex., thence on to Roslin, N. M., and thence to El Paso.

"From the latter place we took the border route to Douglas and Deming, making a side trip to the Roosevelt dam and thence on to Phoenix. From the latter place we toured to Yuma and thence to San Diego, finally coming north by the coast route.

"The southern motor enthusiasts are booming the southern transcontinental route. On paper they have a fine highway, but my actual experience was that it will take much time and money to make it anything like what they claim for it.

"It was hardly possible to know one's route half a day ahead. In coming west we had lost our way at least fifty times for the lack of proper road information. Luckily we started out with a good camp layout and tackled lots of use for our pick and shovel, not to mention the pick and shovel.

"Southern California is making a great play for the transcontinental route and it means that if the route is to come to California that the motorists of the latter place must show the east the true condition of affairs. The route to Oakland is the only logical one. In the touring season it is by far the best which, however, must be made plain.

"A good road to San Francisco in 1915 will mean hundreds of thousands of dollars invested in California. Nothing at this time will prove to be so beneficial or will give greater returns for the money invested than a passable highway from the Atlantic coast to San Francisco."

BUICK FIGURES.

The remarkable activity of the Buick Motor Company, Flint, Mich., in the current year is attested to in the recent report of State Labor Commissioner Powers of Michigan. Report shows an increase of 1556 employees in the Flint factories over last year, with an increase of $5183.14 paid in wages daily this year over the payment of last year. Another and most gratifying showing is the fact that the average daily wage goes from $2.71 to $2.79 this year, a gain of 8 cents per man per day. The average number of male employees in general factory work in 1911 was 7892, while for the past year the average has been 9020, showing an increase of 1128. Of the ten largest manufacturing cities in Michigan, Flint stood second with an average daily wage of $2.79, passed only by Pontiac with a daily wage of $2.82. That the automobile manufacturing business does not furnish a very large field for female labor is shown in the statement that out of a total of 9283 employees but 205 are women.

M'CREERY ESTATE GOES TO FAMILY

Millionaire's Favorites Receive Varying Amounts Out of $2,500,000 Legacy.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Judge Graham yesterday appointed Richard S. McCreery special administrator of the estate of Andrew B. McCreery, it being shown that the property of the deceased pioneer and millionaire needed immediate attention. Attorney H. H. McPike, who represents the heirs, also brought into court a will bearing the date November 7, 1909, in which Richard, who is a son of the testator, is named executor, together with the Mercantile Trust Company.

Included in the beneficiaries are Mrs. Ada Romer Shawhan, her son Romer, and her daughter, Violet, who are bequeathed the sum of $1000, each. Mrs. Shawhan is noted in local circles as a painter of ability. In 1906 her husband, James Shawhan, threatened to sue McCreery for damages in the sum of $100,000, on the ground that the latter had broken up his home, but nothing came of the suit.

Violet Shawhan made her professional debut as an inspiration dancer three years ago at the Columbia Theater under the name of Violet Romer. She is now 21 years of age.
